.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a Writ of Mandamus, or any other appropriate writ, order or direction, declaring the Proceedings in RCB 588/2003 dated 24-7-2004 issued by the Respondent as illegal, arbitrary and based on total non-application of mind and contrary to the rights guaranteed Under Article 300-A of Constitution of India.

Counsel for the Petitioner:SMT.CHINTALAPUDI LAKSHMI KUMARI

Counsel for the Respondent: GP FOR REVENUE

The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

The only ground on which, the writ petition filed by the petitioner is that no notice was served before passing the impugned order dated 24-07-2004 by the respondent. The impugned order depicts that the notices, which were sent to the persons were not residents of Village and their whereabouts are not known and the same were affixed in the respective fields by attaching to the poles.

In view of the same, the petitioner is at liberty to avail statutory remedy of an appeal before the District Collector. The petitioner states that there is a standing crop on the lands. In that case, the appellate authority is directed to consider the appeal, if any filed by the petitioner and pass appropriate orders on the said appeal, expeditiously.

With the above observation, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
